A STYLISH NEW BUSINESS WILL BENEFIT OPEN ARMS

FINDLAY, Ohio (7/21/2009) – A new, local business will give back to the community in style. Closet of Styles, a clothing store that buys and sells gently used name brand clothing for teens and young adults, will collect donations to benefit Open Arms Domestic Violence & Rape Crisis Services from July 13 to August 13. During this time, a customer can bring in an item from the Open Arms wish list and receive 15 percent off his or her entire purchase. Access the Open Arms wish list by visiting <http://www.openarmsfindlay.org/help/wish.shtml>.

Closet of Styles will hold a Grand Opening ceremony on August 13. The Grand Opening will include a live broadcast with Keith and Beth from The Mix 96.7 from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. and a ribbon cutting with Mayor Pete Sehnert at 12 p.m. Depinet Concession will sell cotton candy, snow cones and other items, and fifty percent of their profits will be donated to Open Arms.

During the tough economic times, Closet of Styles offers a way to earn cash for clothing and to purchase gently used items while benefiting the local community. Closet of Styles is located at 7523 Patriot Drive, Findlay, Ohio, in front of Menards, between Stevi B's and Once Upon A Child. For more information visit www.closetofstyles.com.

Open Arms Domestic Violence & Rape Crisis services is a nonprofit agency supported in part by the Hancock County United Way. Open Arms provides six program services to those living and working in the greater Hancock County community. The six programs include Rape Crisis Services, Child Advocacy, Violence Recovery Project, Outreach Services, the Harmony House Visitation & Exchange program, and Emergency Shelter Services. The 24-hour Crisis Hotline is 419-422-4766. Join us at our blog at www.openarmsfindlay.blogspot.com for updates on our everyday life here at Open Arms.
